CIA and the Green Berets

Has the sophisticatedly ruthless Central Intelligence Agency decided to discredit the Green Berets?

If it has, was it because the Green Berets were becoming in the military what the CIA has established for itself in civilian, political, and international warfare intelligence?

CIA involvements are popping up with so much regularity that the organization is not above suspicion anywhere intrigue can be found. Historically, CIA never explains anything.

It is this lack of explanation that is presently helping to discredit the Green Berets in South Vietnam as a superior fighting force.

Six Green Beret officers have been arrested on suspicion of the premeditated murder of a double agent whose name is listed as Chuyen Khac. Evidence indicated that CIA ordered the agent dead. Then, when Chuyen was "terminated", the story was leaked and CIA claimed ignorance.

Could it be that CIA determined to emasculate the Berets because the Berets were becoming as efficient at espionage and intelligence as CIA? All Berets are potential intelligence agents and some, perhaps just a handful, are involved in purely covert operation via the Studies and Observation Group (SOG). And that is an area where CIA thrives.

CIA's self-perpetuation is revealed in the current issue of PARADE magazine which is circulated to millions of readers with your Sunday paper each week. Walter Scott, a question and answer columnist was asked: "Does CIA report to any branch of government the names or numbers of persons CIA liquidates in the line of duty . . . in Vietnam, for example?"

Scott replied: "CIA knows but is not telling. To the President, conceivably . . . to the head of CIA and a handful of others."

The handful of others, some suspect, are the rulers in Russia.

What the CIA does or what it has done to the Green Berets may not be known until some stalwart patriot forces the head of CIA to reveal its purpose, its expenditures, and its activities.

It may be nearer revelation as a result of the charges against the Beret officers. Lawyers have petitioned President Nixon to have the hearing in the U. S. in open court next month.

The charge will be the June 20th "premeditated murder" of Chuyen Khac.

Chuyen was killed under the shadowy direction of a CIA agent, put in a weighted sack, and deposited in the South China Sea.

Incredibly, Col. Robert Rheault, former commander of all Green Berets in South Vietnam and five other officers were arrested and jailed following the liquidation.

Whether the heat came from the conventional military establishment which is said to be jealous of the Berets, or from CIA who may have had an agent killed that someone wanted alive a while longer, may never be known. But when it got hot, somebody leaked the story to transfer the heat. The heat presently is on the Berets rather than the traditional military or the Central Intelligence Agency.

A lawyer for one of the officers is asking for a trial in the U. S. because Gen. Creighton Abrams, commander of all forces in Vietnam, and Major General G. L. Mabry, commander of U. S. Support Troops (which includes the Green Berets Special Forces) have prejudged the defendants to the extent of making a fair court martial trial remote.

It is said that the Berets, an elite, flamboyant corps of fighters, is not popular with the more tradition-bound officers, and that Col. Harold Seamans, who conducted the pre-court martial investigation was prejudiced because he was under the command influence of generals Abrams and Mabry.

The ghostlike CIA-Jack Kennedy connection cropped up again in the minds of news reporters. In a feature article in NEWSWEEK recently, it was reported that probably no organization in military history had so quickly captured the imagination of the American public as the Special Forces. "Dashing guerilla fighters, skilled in all the grim arts of war, the Green Berets have become an instant legend."

"In Vietnam they have produced heroes out of all proportion to their numbers."

"And they have basked in the reflected glory of the Kennedy mystique," the article says.

"For it was John Kennedy who sponsored the Special Forces and to this day a green felt beret lies on his grave in Arlington National Cemetery."

There are still many who see the CIA influence in the one or both Kennedy deaths. These people would certainly believe CIA has set out to kill off the legend of the fine, brave organization which JFK so greatly admired and fostered.

For those who question the sanity of such an approach, let him refer to a new book "THE EXPERTS" written by Seymour Freidin, former executive editor for foreign affairs for the NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE, and George Bailey, former executive editor of THE REPORTER magazine.

On page 35 of "THE EXPERTS" is this extraordinary report:

"Unrevealed until now, was the outburst of the late President's brother, Senator Robert F. Kennedy. Grief-stricken at the sudden calamity that cut the President down, Bobby Kennedy telephoned a ranking official of CIA, who, dumfounded, heard him demand with commingled anger and emotion: 'Did your outfit have anything to do with this horror?'"

As in covert activities, the reports may or may not be true. Some of these include reports that:

- Chuyen, who was killed during or after interrogation, was a U. S. intelligence agent.

- Col. Rheault and his colleagues are being railroaded by the army establishment by army secrecy.

- CIA ordered Chuyen killed, then changed its mind too late.

- Chuyen's death was in direct opposition to Army orders — orders that were in conflict with CIA instructions.

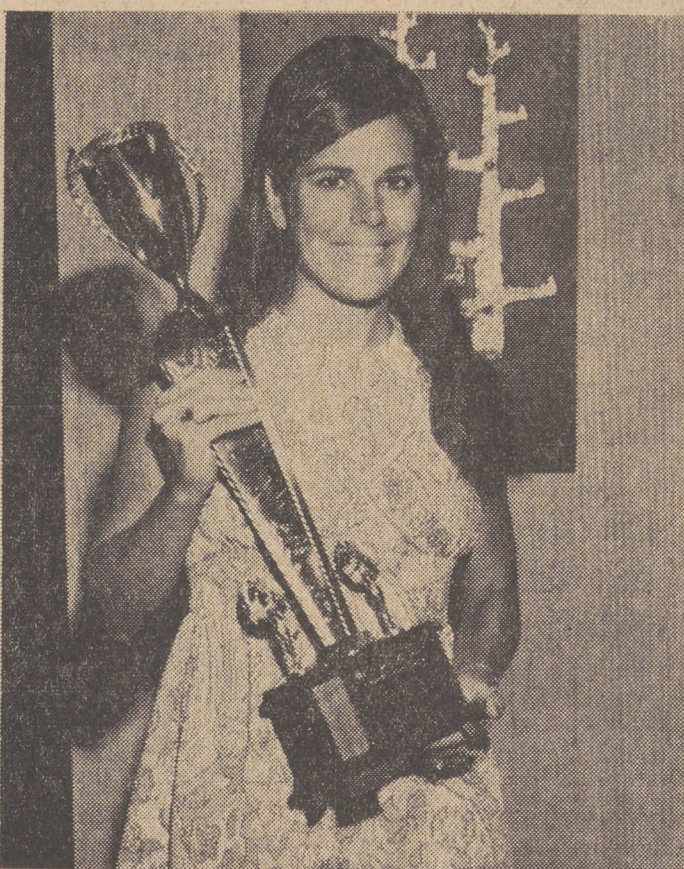

- CIA, disavowing any interest in the killing, left Special Forces holding the bag.

- Special Forces was known to be involved in espionage work — an art that often traditionally includes murder, and often torture. The U. S. command in Saigon knew this. It is amazing that such acts would now be declared illegal.

- George W. Gregory, attorney for the accused, declared Chuyen has been a dangerous double agent and charged that CIA ordered the execution. He also charged that CIA changed its mind after ordering him killed.

- CIA sponsored Green Berets in training Bolivian Army Rangers credited with killing Che Guevara indicating murder.

Love That Site

Supervisors Say No To Willow Glen Dump Move

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — County Supervisors on Monday refused to abandon their refuse disposal site in the middle of the Monte Vista Ranch despite lengthy arguments of the developers and owners.

The site is on the south side of Highway 94 at the Willow Glen intersection.

A portion of the site will be eventually taken by a state freeway, and the state has proposed that it condemn land to restore the land the county will lose.

The proposal would give the dump an estimated life of 20 years in the land fill operation.

The developers were unable to convince the board that there would be a detriment created by the dump since its most visible feature will be a planted dirt slop, according to Public Works Director Jerry Wilson.

Wilson opposed the Monte Vista plan for shifting the site about three and a half miles to the east. He said that in 20 years, this would mean millions of miles of extra travel by those using the dump.

The ranch land, some 3,600 acres once known as the Sharp Ranch, has been an on and off project for a number of years.

It lies south of El Cajon and east of Casa de Oro.

Carl Hammett, 3430 Helix st. in Spring Valley, had good reason to be upset. His home had all but been destroyed by vandals over the weekend.

But he wasn't. He shrugged off the loss. "I've got insurance" and expressed concern that one of the vandals may be in for a siege of illness unless a bite is treated.

The bite was from a large (8 to 10 inch) piranha fish that Hammett had been keeping in a tank.

The piranha is the renowned meat-eating fish with large, sharp teeth. The creature is usually docile and seldom bites without provocation. No man has ever been known to die of wounds suffered from the fish.

But one of the vandals had apparently not recognized the fish and attempted to scoop it barehanded.

Blood was found near the tank and all over the rest of the ruined, two-room house.

The fish was found clubbed and stabbed to death, literally "beaten to a pulp," according to Hammett.

Half a box of band-aids were found near the tank, soaked with blood.

The vandals destroyed stereo equipment, a short-wave radio, poured paint over the carpet and walls, ripped the upholstery with knives and generally made the apartment so unlivable that Hammett is rooming in a motel.

But he's not worried about that. "Whoever it was that was bitten," he says, "had better get the cut treated or it could lead to bad infection."

The water the piranha lives in, he pointed out, is rancid. Because of the nature of the fish, it is impossible to keep snails in the tank, he said.

"From the size of the fingerprints," he continued, "it looks like they (the vandals) were pretty young. The fish could have taken a pretty big chunk out of a young kid. He should have it treated."

"I'm not laying a boobytrap for these kids," he said. "I'm covered by insurance. But I want to make sure that the kid or parent knows about the nature of the bite."

Moral of the story: For a fish, a piranha makes a good watchdog. Or, don't bite off more than you can chew.

Hutton received an award for being named to the Dean's List of honor students during each of the last two years.

In order to receive the two year pin the student must have maintained a minimum grade point average of 7.50 out of a possible 9.0 for two years of work at Dana College.

Hutton is a senior at Dana majoring in history.

Supervisors Affirm Planning For Lemon Grove-Spring Valley

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A priority list for community planning was adopted on Monday by the county Board of Supervisors leading with Lemon Grove, perhaps Spring Valley, and Lakeside.

The actual accomplishment of community planning will depend upon the support of the residents of the community, as the county's community planning has switched to a leadership from citizens, rather than from the county planning staff.

Supervisor Harry Scheidle said that it appears logical that Lemon Grove and Spring Valley be planned together.

Planning Director Dan Cherrier said this could be done, but only if it is the desire of the residents who are to do much of the actual work and make the major decisions.

One of these decisions will be to fix boundaries on the planning area.

Cherrier said that if there is sufficient interest, there could be an overall planning effort, but subcommittees to serve the two communities.

The planning director was given permission for his staff to contact local leaders to see if there is the desire for a planning effort.

The Supervisors also gave the go-ahead Monday to the planning department to set a hearing before the County Planning Commission to zone all of the unzoned portions of the county.

The commission's hearing will be for the zoning move and for the adoption of the LC (Limited Control) zone.

The zone would place a minimum lot size of two and a half acres into effect for the construction of one or two-family dwellings.

The only other uses allowed by right would be farming to the intensity allowed in the most intensive farming zone.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Must Wife Have Number, Too?

Q. My wife will be 62 next year and will file for monthly benefits based on my earnings. She has never worked and does not have a social security number of her own. Is it necessary that she have one?

A. No. It is not necessary for a person to have a social security number to receive dependents' or survivors' social security benefits.

Q. How could I know whether a certain skilled nursing home is qualified to participate in Medicare as an extended care facility?

A. The nursing home would surely know, and your social security office has a list of qualified extended care facilities.

ties. Most likely, your doctor would also know.

Q. I employ a cleaning lady in my home and pay her $10 a week. Must I pay social security taxes on her wages?

Q. If I assign Medicare benefits to my doctor, does this mean that my future claims must also be assigned to him?

A. No. The payment can be made directly to your doctor one time and the next time it can be made to you, if you desire.

This Sunday

Always and Everywhere

Let no one imagine that it is a strained and unnatural thing for one to pray. The contrary is much closer to the fact. It is far more unnatural for one not to pray. Prayer is one of the most natural of human instincts. Prayer is man's response to the divine will.

Life Expectancy Decreasing Fast

Man's life expectancy is decreasing so rapidly that it may require all the efforts of modern medicine just to maintain it at the present levels. Dr. Henry Sobel, chief of aging research at Veterans Administration Hospital, said.

Dr. Sobel, reporting the findings of his years of research at the California Museum of Science and Industry in Exposition Park, dispelled the popular myth that modern medical techniques may be able to extend man's life span.

The occasion was his last day in Southern California. Dr. Sobel left for Colorado State University, where he will be Professor of Biochemistry and Gerontology Program Coordinator.

Already life expectancy has been reduced by three-tenths of a year, he said. And while women can now expect to live 6½ years longer than men, the gap may soon increase to ten years.

Dr. Sobel also pointed out that in addition to environmental life shortening factors, there is also a need to study what he called "mind shortening factors," which are elements in society that reduce the intellect and efficiency of older persons.

Too many experiments on aging are merely paper and pencil calculations, he added. At Colorado State, Dr. Sobel plans to conduct meaningful studies of the factors in aging.

F. S. Schmidt, DISTRICT DIRECTOR, INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q I was billed for additional income taxes. Can I pay this off in installments?

A Full payment is due by the date stated on the bill. There is no provision in the law for paying these taxes on an installment basis.

Q I lost my refund check and filled out a form for a new one over a month ago. What is holding it up?

A Before another refund check can be issued, a thorough search must be made of Treasury records, the Post Office and other sources to see if the missing check can be located. When this search is completed another check can be issued.

Q I made a profit when I sold my vacation home. Can I postpone paying tax on this if I put all the money into another summer place?

A No, the provision in the tax law that permits the postponement of tax on the profits from the sale of a personal residence only applies to the taxpayer's principal residence. A second home, or a vacation home, is not covered.

Q I sold some standing timber on my farm to a lumber company. Is this regular income or a capital gain?

A Such a sale is usually reported as a capital gain or loss. For details on when sale of timber is treated as a capital gain, send a post card to your District Office requesting IRS Publication 544, Sales and Exchanges of Assets.

The Department of Agriculture also has a publication on this subject. It is Handbook No. 274, "The Timber Owner and his Federal Income Tax," and is available from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C., 20402, for 35c a copy.

Q When my father died I inherited the sports car he had. If I sell it, will I have to pay income tax on what it brings?

A Probably not. There would be no Federal income tax to pay on the sale of the car unless it has increased in value during the time you owned it.

There would be a gain to report if you received more for the car when you sold it than its fair market value at the time of your father's death.

Q — My church is paying my expenses to a denominational convention this summer. Will this money be taxable for me?

A — If you are attending as an official delegate of your church, the expenses being paid for you will usually not be taxable for you. However, any expenses being paid for a member of your family accompanying you who is not a delegate would be taxable. Any personal expenses paid for you should have to be declared as taxable income. Also, any reimbursement that exceeds your actual expense is subject to tax.

UCSD Studies Draft Alternatives

"Hell no, we won't go!"

This has become the battle cry of a surprisingly large number of America's potential soldiers. And, often, it's not only a protest against "the war," but also against the Selective Service System that decides who will fight it.

This fall, because of this protest and the furor it has created, University of California Extension will take a look at "The Draft: The Institution, The Regulations and The Alternatives."

Lance Beizer, Statewide Coordinator for Selective Service Affairs, University of California, has scheduled a list of speakers representing both sides of the dispute.

On Sept. 29, the first class meeting, Leslie S. Rothenberg, author of "The Draft and You," will outline the Selective Service System and will discuss the counseling of registrants.

In subsequent weeks, alternatives to the draft, including National Service, a volunteer army and conscientious objection, will be presented. A panel of military recruiters will discuss military alternatives to the draft. Non-military alternatives will be suggested by a representative of the American Friends Service Committee.

On Oct. 20, Dee Ingold, Assistant to the Director, Selective Service System, will defend the System as the fairest and most efficient method of acquiring manpower.

In the final session, a student panel will assist in the summing up.

The class will meet on Mondays, from 7:45 p.m. in the Humanities Library Building at UCSD. Fee is $45 for three credits; $30, non-credit.

To enroll or for further information, contact University Extension, P.O. Box 109, La Jolla, 92037, or call 453-2000, What's doing?

I'd like to pass on this reminder about the most relaxed, comfortable way you can travel these days — Fly Pacific Telephone Lines with a long distance call. In seconds you can be visiting friends or family. And the cost is low. After six p.m. weekdays or all weekend long, it costs 85¢ or less for three minutes, station-to-station, plus tax—anywhere in California. Now where can you beat a round trip travel offer like that?

If you're like a lot of people, you scribble phone numbers you want to remember on everything imaginable — matchbooks, scraps of paper and odds and ends of all sorts. So here's a suggestion that will help you keep those numbers organized. Let us give you one of our Personal Numbers Booklets. It has plenty of spaces for names, addresses, and telephone numbers; and it's a handy size for slipping under the phone. Just call your Business Office and we'll be happy to send you one—more if you need them.

Some early day handset telephone users likely found themselves developing some unusual arm muscle. One 19th century handset—a separate transmitter and receiver attached to thick steel—weighed in at 1 pound 10 ounces. The weight of most modern handsets: a mere 10 ounces.

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

A friend called me on the telephone last week and asked for the meaning of "Sangrita de la Viuda." He said this name appeared on the face of an attractive red bottle given to him by an associate. With a desire to know the meaning of the words, he turned to the dictionary but failed to find "sangrita," and then asked for help.

College Shows 2nd In Series

Grossmont College will present the second film in the Director Series when John Huston's "Reflections in a Golden Eye" is screened at 7 p.m. tonight in the Fine Arts Lecture Hall.

Carson McCuller's novel is the raw material for the soft-focus, softly-accented but potent motion picture drama that John Huston created with Elizabeth Taylor, Marlon Brando, Julie Harris and Brian Keith starring roles.

As an arrogant and faithless wife in "Reflections in a Golden Eye," Miss Taylor adds to growing array of shrewish screen portrayals. Brando plays a subtle and cryptic husband whose furtive fantasies lie elsewhere than with Liz.

Miss Harris appears as a knowingly-deceived child-woman taking neurotic solace from daydreams. Brian Keith portrays her mismatched mate who seeks his rampant pleasures anywhere he can.

The setting for this story of pervasive decadence is a slow-paced military reservation in the South. The New York Times called "Reflections" a "Peculiarly agitating film... with tense and neurotic characters... and a feeling of degeneration beneath a surface of seemingly normalcy..."

The public is invited to view this star-studded film. Chapter 3 in the life of "Flash Gordon" will accompany the feature film. The price of admission is 75 cents with tickets available at the door.

"Viuda" (widow) was not a puzzle. The dictionary provided a good definition. The real question: "What in the world did a widow have to do with the sweet little blood?"

Actually the name "Sangrita de la Viuda" (Sweet little blood of the widow) was probably given (with tongue in cheek) to a mixer-chaser first prepared and bottled by a sweet little Mexican widow. A popular beverage in Mexico and Central America today, "sangrita" is taken as a chaser or a mixer with the piquant national beverage "tequila" (teh-KEE-lah). Explaining a name like this is just about as easy as explaining names like "hot dog," "Coca Cola" and "Iron Butterfly" in our society.

You may wish to practice saying the phrases below with the recorded voice heard when you dial 276-2762. They are less complex than "Sangrita de la Viuda."

LATE BLOOMER — Michael Wong of Lemon Grove didn't start serious piano lessons until three years ago but it didn't take long for the 16-year-old to catch up. He's featured performer at recital this weekend.

Michael Wong Listens To Past

Music, for most teenagers, is a passion.

So it is for Michael Wong, 16, except that he differs in one important respect.

Unlike most, who spend their time listening, Michael is involved in serious study and performance.

He's studying classical piano and will perform Sunday afternoon in a recital at the Chula Vista Women's Club.

A junior at Mount Miguel High School, Michael's attributes are obvious.

A near-beginner just three years ago, he enrolled at Steinbach Studios. Since then, according to Barbara Steinbach, his teacher, he's made tremendous strides.

"We really don't know what he can do yet," she said. "So far, his progress hasn't stopped. He hasn't stopped learning new things. He may be just starting."

It's all happened so fast that Michael hasn't even taken the whole thing seriously as yet.

He likes the piano but isn't thinking in terms of a career. Rather, he'd like to study dentistry, following the example of an older brother.

Michael, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wong, live at 1683 Skyline dr. in Lemon Grove, has studied only classical music.

Has he thought of trying his hand at jazz or another form of popular music? "I don't like it," he says.

His favorites, instead, are composers such as Beethoven and Chopin. He lists Artur Schnabel as an influence.

Michael will practice from an hour to three hours a day and may spend more time on the piano, playing for personal pleasure.

He began at 11, when he became envious of musicians and began to coax tunes out of a toy organ. Soon, he acquired a piano, began lessons and has since graduated to a Steinway.

He'll perform "Capriccio Brillante" by Mendelssohn Sunday at 4:30 p.m. at the Chula Vista Women's Club at 357 G St.

The recital is part of a festival of piano recitals, commemorating San Diego's 200th Anniversary.

Mrs. Carlene Befort will play the orchestral part of the piece, on a second piano.

Might Michael change his mind about a career in music? "He's making such rapid progress," his teacher, Mrs. Steinbach, says, "we don't know where he's going to stop."

Dope Charge Jails Spring Valley Man

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Robert William Gaurino, 18, 246 Lakeview ave., Spring Valley, has been ordered to county jail for six months for possession of marijuana (hashish) for sale.

Superior Court Judge Howard Turrentine also placed Gaurino on probation for three years.

Gaurino pleaded guilty to the charge, a lesser offense than the original charge of sale of marijuana. He had also been charged with sale of a substitute in lieu of dangerous drugs, but this charge was dismissed.

According to the probation report, Gaurino sold $20 worth of hashish to an undercover agent on April 16.

He pleaded guilty on Aug. 28.

C. O. PHILLIPS

BofA Names Phillips To Top Post

In a top level Bank of America appointment with local ramifications, C. O. Phillips has been named to head the bank's new regional headquarters in San Diego.

The announcement was made last week by chairman of the Board Louis B. Lundborg, who described the appointment as "part of a major organizational change expected to result in better, faster banking service to our California customers."

Phillips, a senior vice president since 1963, will be in complete charge of all Bank of America activities in the San Diego region. The bank currently operates 45 branches in this area.

Other Boy Scout officials are Max Elliott, district executive; Wayne Kohagen, district commissioner, and Wayne Fillpot, district chairman.

I DECLARE — Dr. Amorita Treganza, a local optometrist, (right) is showing her new book to Mrs. Elda Carovano, president of the Lemon Grove Soroptomist club. Dr. Treganza, who has conducted "umpteenth" installations, wrote the book as a guide to better organized and more interesting women's club ceremonies.

The book lists many installation ideas and spells out 20 themes ranging from Planets to Mobile homes with such things as ships, Hawaii, months, ribbons and wheels tossed in for good measure.

Every clubwoman should have a copy as insurance against the day she will be called on to mount an installation. The way Dr. Treganza arranges it in her book, even men would sacrifice themselves to sit through his wife's club's installation.

Dr. Treganza, herself a former Soroptomist president, was named San Diego Woman of the Year in 1964.

Mayor Alioto Tops Program For Crusade

San Francisco Mayor Joseph L. Alioto will address Labor's Annual United Crusade Kick-Off Luncheon today at noon at Vacation Village, Mission Bay Park.

In making the announcement, the 1969 Chairman W. E. Quirk and Vice Chairman R. R. Richardson, said, "This affair will have a tremendous impact upon the United Crusade campaigns."

"Organized labor is quite sensitive to the need for the United Crusade to raise $5,500,000 for community needs this year", and they pointed out that Alioto "is an articulate and thoughtful observer of the social problems of our cities."

Namath, Champ Jets Face Chargers Sunday

A space-age conquistador, Broadway Joe Namath leads the world champion New York Jets into San Diego Stadium Sunday to play the San Diego Chargers. Kickoff is 1 p.m.

Namath has become the symbol of the sweet bird of youth soaring on the best wing in the game. Coupled with ace receivers George Sauer and Don Maynard, he triggers the most successful passing attack in pro football. Sunday's game, only 1969 meeting between the Chargers and Jets, will be shown on national television (NBC) out of Southern California. It will be a battle between angry teams.

The Chargers (0-2) left Cincinnati last Sunday bowed and bloodied after a 34-20 defeat by the Bengals. The Jets (1-1) chased the officials off the field at Denver after being jolted by the Broncos, 21-19.

San Diego continues to be confronted by its inability to score. In two games, the Chargers have gained 690 yards, but have scored only three touchdowns and one of those was a recovered fumble in the end zone by defensive tackle Bob Briggs against Cincinnati.

Bothered by a sore elbow, Charger quarterback John Hadl has yet to throw a touchdown pass. He threw 27 last year and has 133 for his eight-year career. "We'll lick this thing," vowed Hadl. "We're not quitters."

On the bright side, the Chargers had their best running game of the year against the Bengals. They gained 180 yards with spectacular "Mighty Mouse" Dickie Post having the second best day of his career with 147 yards and a 9.8 average.

Post also caught three passes; Lance Alworth made the 400th reception of his brilliant career, and Gary Garrison gained 109 yards on three catches.

With 10 unassisted tackles, middle linebacker Rick Redman was a defensive standout. End Steve DeLong made seven unassisted tackles.

Youngsters Place In Tourney

The Bakersfield (California) Junior State (Bowling) Tournament, held in July, which attracted youngsters from all over the State, also attracted young bowlers from Spring Valley, bowling at Golden Bowl. Recently three of these young bowlers were notified how they had placed in the Tournament:

Ken Anderson and Clay Smith of the Bantam Boys, placed 41st in the Doubles; and Pam Mitchell of the Bantam Girls, placed 26th in the Singles.

Four leagues, bowling at Golden Bowl in the winter season, have reported standings for the first week:

Gold Dusters: Carlton Oaks Country Club and Malton Construction, tied for first; Geny's Bowling Apparel, Team No. 10, Joe Effinger's House of Siroin, and Team No. 1, tied for 2nd; Team No. 6, Rex Foster's Orchids, Team No. 7, and Team No. 2, tied for 3rd.

Fun-Stirs: Team No. 2 and The "Odfies", tied for first; Milkos, 2nd; Team No. 13, Kinfolks, Jokers and Alley Oups, tied for 3rd.

Aztecs Host LA State Saturday

While most of the nation's football teams were off and running last Saturday, San Diego State's contribution to the gridiron sport was enjoying an extra weekend of "rest".

But now the time has come and this Saturday the wraps will come off the 1969 edition of Don Coryell's Aztecs.

The Aztecs will be starting their 47th year of football and ninth under Coryell when they host Cal State Los Angeles at 8 p.m. in San Diego Stadium. The game will be more than just an ordinary season opener as it is an official Pacific Coast Athletic Association tussle.

San Diego goes into its 47th campaign, the 100th for college football with an all-time record of 231-159-23 including Coryell's fine eight-year mark of 68-11-2.

This will be the 16th meeting of the two squads with the Aztecs leading the series 9-5-1. The last meet came in 1968 when the men of Montezuma triumphed, 37-14. The Diablos haven't won since 1965 when they topped SDS 26-12 when both schools were members of the California Collegiate Athletic Association.

San Diego will be opening with a highly potent attack and a bone-crushing defense. The offense will be sparked by All-American quarterback candidate Dennis Shaw (6-3, 205). Shaw completed 56% (134-240) of his passes last year for 2139 yards and 19 touchdowns.

Shaw holds four school records including single-game marks of 524 yards passing and seven touchdown tosses (set against the University of Southern Mississippi).

Also operating in the starting backfield will be halfback Lindsey James (6-2, 215), a highly-touted transfer from Bakersfield College, and veteran George Brown (6-4, 241). Brown gained 255 yards in 1968 and scored one touchdown.

On the receiving end of Shaw's arials will be two-time JC All-American from El Camino College, Tom Reynolds (6-2½, 205).

Starting at the other end for the Aztecs will be veteran Tim Delaney, a 5-11, 185-pound returning veteran. At the flanker slot will be Utah State transfer Ken Burrow (6-0, 201).

The offensive line will be anchored by All-American hopeful Bill Pierson (6-3, 251). Big Bill has already been tabbed as first team center on Kick-off Magazine's pre-season Far West squad.

At the tackles will be former JC All-American at San Diego Mesa College, Lee Felice (6-4, 240) and Ventura College transfer Tom Shellabarger.

In the linebacker slots will be Carl Weathers (6-2, 220) who moves back from the defensive line where he played in 1968. Joining Weathers will be Donnie Rea (6-2, 220), a transfer from Ventura College, and Veteran Andy Rodriguez (5-10, 193).

At the defensive back positions will be Billie Hayes (6-½, 175), Caesar Payne (6-0, 170), Jon Robertson (5-11, 163) and Steve Brinkley (6-0, 181).

Granite Hills and Helix did battle in the first period as both squads were able to score once for a 6-6 tie.

Tim Doerr debuted as a flanker for Granite Hills and did well while Helix picked up most of its yardage on pass and draw plays.

In the second quarter, Mt. Miguel went against Santana and eased by with a 6-0 conquest of the Sultans. Dave Zimmerman caught a 48-yard pass for the score.

El Cap, after recovering a fumble on the Monarchs' 32, went in for the score for a 7-0 win over the Monarchs.

Grossmont went against El Cajon in the finale as both squads scored once for a 6-6 tie.

Speedee Chase was the Braves' offensive threat while Jim Dow did well on offense for the Foothillers.

Larry Olson scored for the Foothillers with 3:20 left on a pitchout for the Grossmont score.

The East squad was made up of Granite Hills, Grossmont, Santana, and El Cap while Monte Vista, Mt. Miguel, Helix, and El Cajon made the West squad.

Monarchs Take On San Diego Monsters

Monte Vista's rebuilding Monarchs are not expected to make instant progress.

Especially since their first opponent Friday night is powerful San Diego High, rated among the top four or five teams in the county.

The Monarchs will be improved, although they may not look it against the powerful Eastern League Cavers, who invade the Monte Vista turf at 8 p.m.

Coach Pat Carroll can bank on his running attack, including veteran Vince Campoli, one of the better league rushers last year, and Rob Westcott and speedy Bill Thompson.

Seniors Dan Reed and Mike Lasley will share quarterback chores.

A lack of speed could be fatal to the Monarchs, as San Diego is noted for fleet backs, ends and linemen.

Trying to stop the Cavers will be tackle Jim Patterson (200), ends Bill Payne and Dan Doyle and linebacker

Mitch Muhleman (185). San Diego, meanwhile, will trot out a team with 16 returning lettermen.

The material is impressive. Quarterback Mike Haynes will direct an attack built around veteran runners Paul Davis (176), Robert Jones (172), Robert Clark (155), Charlie Burks (170), Carl Smith (171), Willie Thompson (168), Lee Davis (185) and Leo Valentine (185).

There is enough beefy line talent around to staff a pro team.

Looming largest are tackles Lou Williams (6-3, 253), Chris Stark (6-4, 248) and Carlos Hall (6-4, 241).

Lesser monsters include, tackles Kiko Cornejo (215) and Pete Piranio (193), guards Herman Collins (216), Stan Atkins (197), Phil Hummel (216) and Duane McLaron (186) and center Danny Williams (210).

On paper, the Cavers are rated a threat to knock off City champion Morse in the Eastern loop.

Matadors To Tussle With Metro Power

Mount Miguel's hopeful Matadors, after only a quarter of football this year, test their mettle against Sweetwater on the Red Devils' field Friday night.

Sweetwater is banking on backfield speed and a big line to make them contenders in the rough Metro League this year.

The Matadors, meanwhile, are making eyes at the Grossmont League crown.

Coach Ben Cipriani likes his team, and plans to run at people rather than move through the air. He'll put a lot of weight on fullback Billy Joe Winchester, who packs a lot of punch. He can push his 220 or so pounds over 50 yards in .057 seconds and of course he was a 62-foot shotputter this spring.

Supporting Winchester will be veteran Larry Caudillo, newcomer Chris Wilhite and vet quarterback Bill Muir.

Muir will be able to throw to tight end Dave Zimmerman and flanker Larry Smith.

Leading line candidates should be Howard Allen, Ken Ledbetter, Greg Robinson, Don Jackson, Dave Labeaugh and Milt Johnson.

The Matadors, however, will have their hands full with the Sweeties, rated by many experts as every bit the equal of virtually intact county champion Castle Park in the Metro circuit.

Mike Ruiz, a .21.8 sprinter, and Jesse Davis, a .10-flat man, key the attack.

They'll be fronted by guard John Drake (228), tackle Mike Waketey (220), center Bob Emerson (190), and at least five other candidates ranging from 190 to 210 pounds.

Rockets Sign Kojis For 3 More Years

SAN DIEGO — Don Kojis, who made the move to San Diego in 1967 as a member of the San Diego Rockets of the NBA, assured himself of a home in San Diego until 1973 with the announcement by Rocket general manager Pete Newell that the 6-6 All-Star forward had received a three-year extension of his contract.

"The three-year contract between Don Kojis and the Rockets has been extended in its present form for an additional three years," said Newell.

Kojis, team captain the past two seasons and six-year veteran of professional basketball, had signed a three-year contract with the Rockets last season.

Burning Ban Lifted For Building Trades

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The County Board of Supervisors decided on Monday to not place rules banning construction burning into effect until Jan. 1.

The board had decided in a four to one vote the week previously to halt burning in connection with building.

Supervisor Henry A. Boney suggested the 90-day extension of the deadline. He said this would allow contractors who have not figured on the cost of non-burn waste disposal to complete present contracts.

Day's Burglar Business Rakes In $1.2 Million

Any business that rakes in $1.2 million per day can only be described as big business, and that's the approximate daily take of the big business of burglary in the United States.

The annual loss suffered by victims of the burglary business and their insurance companies adds up to well over $400 million, but much of this could be prevented by proper preventive measures, the Insurance Information Institute advises.

Once a burglar has chosen his "customer," and successfully completes his transaction, there is little chance that the goods can be recovered. Because of a lack of witnesses, say police, almost 80 per cent of the burglaries reported are never solved.

In recent years the burglary business has doubled in the United States and, unlike lightning, thieves often strike more than once in the same place. The ambitious young burglar on the way up can often increase his gross sales by repeat business.

In view of these facts, prudent businessmen are beginning to realize the necessity for "burglar proofing" their businesses. The I.I.I. offers the following tips for decreasing the burglar's profit margin.

● Lock him out. A sturdy lock can often completely discourage a timid burglar and at least make a bold one work harder.

● Count the keys. Experts advise that records should be kept on key distribution. Employees should be required to turn in their keys when they leave the business.

● Sound the alarm. Burglar alarms are perhaps the most obvious means of burglar protection but, surprisingly, they are not widely used, and many are so poorly maintained that they fail to work when needed.

● Put burglars in the spotlight. Businessmen should try to provide a lot of light, both inside and outside the store.

● Don't forget the obvious.

All the hints given above can help prevent burglaries, but common sense precautions must also be used. For instance, having all the windows barred will be useless if a transom is left open or an employee is careless with his keys. Only by applying all preventive techniques diligently can the businessman assure that the burglar's profits do not become his loss.

UC Scientists Mull Moon Rock Samples

Scientists at the University of California, San Diego are probing the secrets of moon samples just consigned to them for study by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

UCSD's first consignment of lunar material, consisting of approximately four ounces (100 grams) of lunar dust, was delivered by NASA officials Sept. 13 to Dr. James Arnold, UCSD professor of chemistry. Arnold brought the sample from Houston to the La Jolla campus.

Principal investigators involved in the moon-sample studies are Arnold, Dr. Harold C. Urey, Nobel Prize-winning chemist and professor of chemistry at large; Dr. Gustaf Arrhenius, professor of oceanography and assistant director of UCSD's Institute for Pure and Applied Physical Sciences, and Dr. Albert E. J. Engel, professor of geology.

Collaborating with them are a number of co-investigators, including Dr. Kurt Marti, assistant professor of chemistry, a member of Urey's group, and Dr. Celeste Engel, in Dr. Albert E. J. Engel's group.

Urey and Arnold are members of the "People's Gallery."

"The People's Gallery" — an experimental form of graphic communication opened this week on the mall at the Grossmont Shopping Center. It features Americana paintings of Remington and Russell, exponents of Art of the Old West. Additionally, dramatic contemporary advertising posters will be featured on large, three-sided, free-standing kiosks.

This first showing in Grossmont was of special lithographs from the Amon Carter Museum in Fort Worth, Texas and the Thomas Gilcrease Institute in Tulsa, Oklahoma. The art shown is familiar to most Americans and has never before been featured in this area in such variety.

The "People's Gallery" is a Metromedia development and has been over three years in the developmental stage.

A panel of experts reviewed both non-commercial and commercial graphics before accepting them for display in "The People's Gallery."

der as a way of Beret life.

● Green Berets were dropped in most Dominican Republic towns by helicopters in 1965. They were returned to Santo Domingo where they gave intelligence reports to CIA.

● Chuyen was important to someone. Either to the Saigon government or some other powerful nation.

These reports are yet to be proved. But there is enough to indicate an inter-service mess that must be cleaned up. If the President orders a hearing in open court in the U.S., CIA will be spotlighted.

Perhaps then we can learn more about the super-powerful organization which is given unlimited funds without an accounting, and which can order dead anyone who becomes an obstacle to its determination.
